Early Modern European History Seminar: Easter 2012

The seminar meets on alternate Thursdays at 12:45 p.m. in the Leslie Stephen Room at Trinity Hall.

EASTER 2012
26 April
Alex Walsham (Cambridge)
'Antiquitates Cornu-Britannick: Language, Landscape and Memory in Early Modern Cornwall'

10 May
Maartje van Gelder (University of Amsterdam)
'Between North Africa and the Dutch Republic: The Mediating Roles of Dutch Converts to Islam in the 17th Century'.

24 May
Rebekka von Mallinckrodt (University of Bremen)
'Slaveholders without Colonies: The Case of 18th-Century Brandenburg-Prussia'.

* Special end-of-year seminar:
Tuesday, 5 June, 12:45pm
Francesca Trivellato (Yale), with response by David Abulafia (Cambridge)
'The "Jewish" Origins of the Bill of Exchange'.

(N.B. Professor Trivellato's paper will be pre-circulated, and the session will begin with a response to the paper by Professor Abulafia followed by general discussion.)

For a copy of Professor Trivellato's paper, please contact J.P. Ghobrial at jpg52@cam.ac.uk

All are welcome to bring lunch to this seminar. Tea and coffee will be served.

Convenors: Melissa Calaresu
John-Paul Ghobrial
William O'Reilly
Ulinka Rublack