Early Modern European History Seminar: Lent 2012

The seminar meets on alternate Thursdays at 12:45 p.m. in the Leslie Stephen Room at Trinity Hall.

19 January  Ines Zupanov (CNRS, Paris)
‘Catholic Orientalism in India: Missionary Philology between Translation and Conversion, 16th – 18th centuries’.

2 February  Andrew Laird (Warwick)
‘Humanism and its transformations in Spanish America, 1500-1700’.

16 February  Maria Fusaro (Exeter)
‘Sailing into Modernity? Sailors and Salary Litigation in the Early Modern Mediterranean’

1 March  (N.B. this session to take place in the Graham Storey Room, Trinity Hall)
Ben Kaplan (UCL)
‘Religious Encounters in the Borderlands of Early Modern Europe’.

All are welcome to bring lunch to this seminar. Tea and coffee will be served.

Related events:

2 March at 5pm  ‘Storytelling and the Global Past: A Conversation with Natalie Zemon Davis and Amitav Ghosh’. For details and booking information, see http://www.crassh.cam.ac.uk/events/1899/

Convenors:
Melissa Calaresu
John-Paul Ghobrial
William O'Reilly
Ulrika Rublack