World History Seminar: Lent Term 2012.

All these seminars will take place in the Rushmore Room, St Catharine’s College at 5pm.

Thursday 26 January
Dr Lily Chang  ‘The legal construction of childhood. Adjudicating juvenile offenders in wartime China, 1937-45.’

Thursday 9 February
Professor Dominic Lieven  ‘Empire, Russia and the First World War’

Thursday 16 February
Jon Earl  ‘Reading Locke and Rousseau in colonial Uganda.’

Thursday 23 February
Professor Catherine Hall (UCL), ‘Whose histories? Slave owners’ stories of the slave trade and slavery.’

Thursday 8 March
Open discussion with Professors Chris Clark and Hans van de Ven: ‘The First World War in global context’

Related events: please consult Centre of South Asian Studies website for South and Southeast Asia seminars, also African Studies and Latin American Studies websites for these areas, but note particularly:

Wednesday 25 January at 5pm:
Dr Ramachandra Guha will inaugurate the new CSAS premises in the Alison Richard Building, West Road, with an informal discussion on his approach to Indian history and politics.

Friday 2 March:
Alison Richard Building at 5pm  ‘Storytelling and the global past: a conversation with Natalie Zemon Davis and Amitav Ghosh’ chaired by Dr. J-P. Ghobrial

Wednesday 14 March (with Centre of South Asian Studies):
Alison Richard Building 5pm

Dr Michael Collins (UCL)  ‘Rabindranath Tagore and the West.’

Convenors:
CAB, MAV, SK, SS, JC, TNH, RW, GR, FB