
Thursday 17 January

Prof. Harshan Kumarasingham (Humboldt Institute, Potsdam) ‘Asiatic Queen: constitutional monarch in Independent India, Pakistan and Ceylon’

Thursday 24 January

James Roslington (Trinity) ‘Islam and colonialism in North Africa’

Thursday 31 January

Andrew Arsan (Corpus Christi) ‘There is in the heart of Asia…an entirely French population. The uneven co-ordinates of the French Orient, 1840-1914’

Thursday 7 February

Dr John Chalcraft (LSE) ‘Mighty border-crossing traditions. Dissent, mass movements and revolution in the Middle East and North Africa since the eighteenth century’

Thursday 21 February

Dr Mark Frost (East Anglia) ‘Pandora’s post-box: the mobility of discourse across Britain’s Asian Empire, 1854-1920’

Thursday 7 March

Prof. Gabriel Paquette (Johns Hopkins) ‘After America. The Iberian empires in the long nineteenth century’

Seminars will take place in the Rushmore Room, St Catharine’s College at 5pm

Please see also seminar programmes for African, South Asian and Latin American Studies.

CAB, SS, RW, SK, GR, FB.