World History Seminar
Easter Term 2015

All seminars take place on Thursdays at 5pm
Latimer Room, Old Court, Clare College, CB2 1TL unless noted otherwise

Friday 1 May
Alison Bashford (Cambridge)
Malthus and the New World
Inaugural Lecture as Vere Harmsworth Professor of Imperial and Naval History
LG18, Law Faculty, Sidgwick Site
(Please note the alternative day and venue)

7 May
Sujit Sivasundaram (Cambridge)
Imperial Blanketing: Aborigines, Gender and the Tasman Triangle in the Emergence of British Rule

Friday 8 May
Prasenjit Duara (National University of Singapore), with Alison Bashford, Tim Harper, and Shruti Kapila (Cambridge)
Bateman Auditorium, Gonville & Caius College, 4-6pm
(Please note the alternative day, venue and time)

14 May
Jacob Norris (Sussex)
Long Before their Diaspora: Writing Migration into Palestinian History

18 May (in conjunction with the American History Seminar)
Louis Nelson (Virginia)
The Jamaican Sugar Plantation: Improvement, Industry, and Control

21 May
Simon Jackson (Birmingham)
Through a Windshield, Darkly: Automobility, Race and Nation between Beirut and Detroit, 1918-1939

28 May
Susan Pedersen (Columbia) with Alison Bashford, Andrew Arsan and Peter Mandler
Main Lecture Theatre, Old Divinity School, St John’s College

Convenors:
Dr. Andrew Arsan (aka25), St. John’s College
Dr. Ruth Watson (riw21), Clare College