World History Seminar
Lent Term 2014

All seminars take place on Thursdays at 5pm
Latimer Room, Old Court, Clare College, CB2 1TL

22 January
Patience Schell (Aberdeen)
The Value and Values of Natural History in Nineteenth-Century Chile

29 January
Helen Pfeifer (Cambridge)
Empire of Politesse: Ottoman Literary Salons in an Age of Expansion

5 February
Sunil Purushotham (Cambridge)
World History in the Atomic Age: Past, Present, and Future in the Political Thought of Jawaharlal Nehru

12 February
Lori Allen (SOAS)
Palestine, the Third World, and the UN as Seen from a Special Commission

19 February
Anyaa Anim-Addo (Leeds)
‘Miss So-and-So, Miss Jenny This, or Miss Jenny That’: Emancipation and Maritime Enterprise in the Caribbean

26 February
David Todd (KCL)
Lawyers and Pashas: The Legal Instruments of Informal Empire, Egypt 1801-1882

5 March
George Karekwaivane (Cambridge)
Intermediaries, Intellectuals and Translators: Examining the History of the First Generation of African Lawyers in Zimbabwe

12 March
Konrad Lawson (St Andrews)
Finding Resistance Elsewhere: The Civil War in Spain and Japan’s Invasion of China

Convenors:
Dr. Andrew Arsan (aka25), St. John’s College
Dr. Ruth Watson (riw21), Clare College