

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

Cambridge Global Economic History Seminar

Easter Term 2023

Tuesdays, 17:15-18:45,

Audit Room, King's College (unless otherwise noted)

Convenors: Gareth Austin and Bronwen Everill

25 April

Damilola Adebayo (York University)

Native Authorities and Infrastructural Investments in Colonial Africa: The Electrification of Nigerian Towns, 1910-1950

2 May

Madeline Woker (Cambridge University)

The tax haven that wasn't: state, capital, and the politics of corporate taxation in the French colonial empire, 1920s-1950s.

9 May

Debin Ma (Oxford University)

Ideology and Economic Change: The Contrasting Paths to the Modern Economy in late 19th Century China and Japan

16 May

Jörg Batten (University of Tübingen)

The Greatest Divergence of World History: Elite violence and elite numeracy in the Middle East from 500 CE to 1900 CE.

6 June - Venue tbc

50 Years of An Economic History of West Africa

To subscribe to our mailing list, wherever you are in the world, please visit

<https://www.hist.cam.ac.uk/event-series/global-economic-history>.

Whether online or in person, where possible, the speaker provides a paper in advance, which will be sent to those who sign up

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF
Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Email: mjw205@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk