

WORLD HISTORY WORKSHOP: TERM CARD (EASTER TERM 2023)

The World History Workshop provides a forum for postgraduate students and early career fellows to present their research. In Easter Term, we will focus on presentations by members of our World History MPhil programme. We will meet on Thursdays from 2–3.30 pm. Participants can join us in Room 12 of the History Faculty building or on Zoom. Links will be available via our mailing list. To join the mailing list, please scan the QR code and complete the form.

27 April 2023

- Madhumitha Krishnan (University of Cambridge), A 'Dialectic of Crime': The Construction of the Indian Indentured Labour System and the Making of Empire
- Ben Jacob (University of Cambridge), Beyond the Cane: A Multispecies History of Indentureship and the 'Great Sugar Industry', 1834–1920

4 May 2023

- Jacinta Chen (University of Cambridge), Articulating Timurid Sovereignty: The Case of Persianate–Chinese Relations in Early Modern Eurasia
- Callie Belback (University of Cambridge), Cold War Radio and the Making of Hong Kong Identity, 1945–1967

11 May 2023

- Jendayi Omowale (University of Cambridge), Investigating the Quality of Life of Enslaved Kittitians and Nevisians During and After the Sugar Boom
- Rhea Blem (Free University Berlin), Capturing Cattle and Cultural Heritage: Investigating the Itinerary of an Ithunga / Milk Pail from 19th Century KwaZulu–Natal, South Africa, in the Context of Extractive Colonialism

18 May 2023

- Shu Wan (University at Buffalo), Measuring up Chinese Children across the Pacific: Vivia B. Appleton's Transnational Anthropometric Research
- Benjamin Goh (University of Cambridge), World History Making as Place Making: K. G. Tregonning and His Autonomous History of Malaya

Convenors 2022–2023:

- Allan Pang, Bipasha Bhattacharyya, Darold Cuba, Thomas McNally, Thomas Parkinson

Contact:

- worldhistoryworkshop@gmail.com