

The Cambridge Middle East History Group

Seminar programme, Easter Term 2011:

Tuesday 10 May:

Dr Andrew Arsan (Princeton), 'Of Mountains and Markets: Writing Migration into the History of the Middle East'.

(Room N7, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Tuesday 24 May:

Dr James Renton (Edge Hill University), 'The Origins of the Israel/Palestine Conflict'.

(Room N7, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Tuesday 7 June:

Dr John-Paul Ghobrial (Cambridge), 'Asymmetries and Imbalances, or How should we write the history of encounter between Europe and the Middle East?'

(The Nihon Room, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Tuesday 14 June:

Jessica Marglin (Princeton), 'Jews Seeking Justice: Petitions to the Ministry of Complaints in Nineteenth-Century Morocco'.

(The Nihon Room, Pembroke College, 5pm)