

The Cambridge Middle East History Group inaugural seminar

'The Middle East in the World: a roundtable discussion'
with Dr. Amira Bennison, Dr. Kate Fleet and Dr. Tim Harper
Thursday 3rd February, 5pm, Nihon Room, Pembroke College

Programme

5.00pm:

Introductions

5.05pm:

Dr. Amira Bennison:

'The Straits of Gibraltar: bridge or barrier in the history of the western Mediterranean?'

Dr. Kate Fleet:

'Created geographies and historical realities: the Ottoman-Turkish case'

Dr. Tim Harper:

'The Middle East, Further East and Far East in a late imperial age'

6.00pm:

Break for tea/coffee

6.10pm:

Questions and general discussion

6.55pm:

Concluding remarks

7pm:

Wine and refreshments

Convenors: Jake Norris, David Motadel, John Slight