

The Cambridge Middle East History Group

Seminar programme 2011:

Lent term

Thursday 3 February:

Inaugural seminar: 'The Middle East in the World'. A roundtable discussion featuring Dr Amira Bennison, Dr Tim Harper and Dr Kate Fleet.

(Thomas Gray Room, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Tuesday 1 March:

Stefan Ihrig (Berlin), 'Nazi Germany and Turkey: "German Ottomans" and a strange case of entangled history'.

(The Green Room, Gonville and Caius College, 5pm)

Tuesday 15 March:

Max Reibman (Cambridge), 'Syrian Dissidents, American Diplomats and European Workers in the Egyptian Revolution of 1919'.

(The Thomas Gray Room, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Easter term

Tuesday 10 May:

Dr Andrew Arsan (Princeton), 'Of Mountains and Markets: Writing Migration into the History of the Middle East'

(Room N7, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Tuesday 24 May:

Dr James Renton (Edge Hill University), title TBC

(Room N7, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Tuesday 7 June:

Dr John-Paul Ghobrial (Cambridge), 'Wikileaks and the Ottomans'

(The Nihon Room, Pembroke College, 5pm)

Tuesday 14 June:

Jessica Marglin (Princeton), title TBC

(The Nihon Room, Pembroke College, 5pm)