

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
Faculty of History

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF
Tel: + 44 (0) 1223 335340
Fax: + 44 (0) 1223 335968
<http://www.hist.cam.ac.uk>

INTELLIGENCE SEMINAR

Easter Term 2012

Welcome or welcome back! As in previous terms, the Seminar will provide a forum for distinguished visiting speakers, the innovative intelligence research in progress in Cambridge, and discussion. There is usually time in the latter part of each Seminar for members, if they wish, to mention newly-declassified documents in the archives and other recent discoveries.

The Seminar acknowledges with gratitude financial support from the Mellon and Trevelyan Funds.

Chris Andrew (cma1001@gmail.com), Peter Martland (spm14@cam.ac.uk)
Stef Halper (hrbsh@aol.com), Sir Richard Dearlove
(Eileen.Green@pem.cam.ac.uk)

Friday 27th April

5-30 pm in NCR, Corpus Christi (entry via C staircase, New Court):

Dr Chris Moran and Dr Simon Willetts (Warwick): 'Findings of the "Landscapes of Secrecy" project on the history of the CIA'

Since winter 2008, a team of 5 academics from the Universities of Warwick and Nottingham have been researching the public profile of the CIA. Drawing upon a range of new archival sources, as well as scores of interviews with Agency veterans, the team has explored how the 'history' of the CIA has been constructed through mediums such as journalism, memoirs and spy fiction.

Friday 4th May

5-30 pm in NCR, Corpus Christi (entry via C staircase, New Court):

Ambassador Vladimir I. Trubnikov is a Russian journalist, political scientist, intelligence officer and diplomat. He was Director of the Foreign Intelligence Service (Russia) 1996-2000; he was First Deputy Foreign Minister from 2000-2004, and in 2004 he was appointed by President Putin to be Ambassador to India.

Ambassador Trubnikov will comment on the challenges faced while directing the Foreign Intelligence Service, his tenure as Ambassador to India, President Putin and the likely course of Russia's relations with Britain and the US.

Friday 11th May PLEASE NOTE CHANGE OF LOCATION

5.30 pm in Harley-Mason Room, Corpus Christi (H staircase, New Court; turn right after Porter's Lodge):

Dr Petratos Pythagoros of the Saïd Business School, University of Oxford and ESCP, Europe. 'Defining cyberintelligence'.

The main purpose of this paper is to define Cyberintelligence. Traditional definitions of intelligence are presented and appropriately adapted to cyberspace. In addition electronic and other intelligence issues are examined and eventually connected to the definition of Cyberintelligence. Finally, some cases regarding the application of the definition and importance of Cyberintelligence are discussed.

Pythagoras Petratos is an economist, political scientist and engineer. He has postgraduate degrees at Cass Business School, City University, University of London and the University of Oxford. He has a PhD from the University of London and is currently a Visiting Professor at ESCP and Teaching Associate at Saïd Business School, University of Oxford, as well as a Visiting Fellow at Buckingham University. He has also taught postgraduate courses at the University of London and the Universities of Thessaly, Crete and Peloponnese. He has diverse research interests focusing mainly on finance and financial innovation in various areas, among them information security.

Friday 18th May PLEASE NOTE CHANGE OF LOCATION

5-30 pm in Harley-Mason Room, Corpus Christi (H staircase, New Court; turn right after Porter's Lodge):

Peter Martland and Dan Larsen, 'British/US intelligence relations in World War 1 and between the wars'

Friday 6 July

11 am (coffee) for 11-30: Joint Meeting with British Study Group on Intelligence at the Royal United Services Institute, Whitehall, London.

Further details to be circulated

If you are able to come, you will need to send your name to the Study Group on Intelligence (together with £6 cheque for lunch) on a brief form which will be distributed by email to those on the Seminar circulation list.

When completing the form, please mention that you are coming as Professor Andrew's guest unless you are a member of the Group.