

Faculty of History
MEDIEVAL RESEARCH SEMINAR

EASTER TERM 2013

History Faculty Board Room 5-7 p.m.

Convenors: Andrew Bell, Christine Carpenter, Liesbeth van Houts, Rosamond McKitterick, Andrew Spencer

Thursday 16th May

Sam Ottewill-Soulsby 'Contact between rulers and rebels on the Carolingian Ummayyad frontier'

Jesse Harrington 'The themes of providence and identity in Walter Newburgh's Chronicle Historia rerum anglicanum'

Des Akinson 'The history of the Augustinian religious house at Canonsleigh, Devon'

Thursday 23rd May

Tim Stanton 'Perceptions of identity and ethnicity in 10th century Cumbria

Tom Mansfield 'The Carolingian influence on the historical writings of Bishop Otto of Freising'

Miranda Hutchinson 'The late eleventh-century nuns of Wilton in the light of the Life and Miracles of Edith and the Liber Confortatorius'

Thursday 30th May

Kathy Kamikawa 'Carolingian administrative procedures in Aquitaine 742-838'

Ben Stokes 'Magic and the supernatural in the writings of John of Salisbury'

Eleanor Reader-Moore 'The fortunes of a rebel family: the de Montforts after 1265'