

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
Faculty of History

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF
Tel: + 44 (0) 1223 335340
Fax: + 44 (0) 1223 335968
<http://www.hist.cam.ac.uk>

THE EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY SEMINAR
2012-2013

MICHAELMAS TERM 2012

- 23 October ‘The Industrious Revolution: A Concept Too Many?’
PROFESSOR JAN DE VRIES
University of California, Berkeley, and European University
Institute, Florence
- 13 November ‘The Enlightenment: A Useful Category of Analysis?’
PROFESSOR JOHN ROBERTSON, University of Cambridge
DR EMMA SPARY, University of Cambridge

The Eighteenth-Century Seminar is a new post-graduate seminar, sponsored by the Faculty of History, aiming to explore topics of shared interest to historians (and the historically-minded) with diverse specializations and sensibilities who work on the eighteenth century.

The seminar will meet about twice a term, on Tuesdays at 5 pm, in the Queen’s Building Seminar Room on the ground floor of the Queen’s Building at Emmanuel College.

Dr Lawrence Klein, Emmanuel College (lek26@cam.ac.uk)
Dr Renaud Morieux, Jesus College (rm656@cam.ac.uk)