

Graduate seminar in Modern British history

Lent Term 2014

The seminar meets in the Nihon Room, Pembroke College. Meetings start at 5.15pm, and there will be tea available from 5pm

Please note a variation from the normal pattern of meetings this term

Monday 20 January

Niamh Gallagher (St Catharine's College)

"Orange and Green United. This is Ireland's War": the Irish Canadian Rangers' visit to Dublin, Armagh, Belfast, Cork and Limerick in January 1917

Monday 3 February

Tom Crewe (Pembroke College)

The rise and progress of the 'platform': party leaders and popular politics, c. 1830-1900

Monday 3 March

Richard Whatmore (University of St Andrews)

Britain, Scotland and Europe in 1815

Monday 10 March

Peter Hession (Peterhouse)

The Twilight Saga Revisited: 'bourgeois' sociability, the aristocratic embrace, and exhibitionary culture in late Victorian Cork

Eugenio Biagini
Lawrence Klein
Jon Lawrence
Renaud Morieux (convenor)
Jon Parry
Geraint Thomas

The Seminar is grateful for the generous support provided by the Trevelyan Fund