The Eighteenth-Century Seminar is a post-graduate seminar, sponsored by the Faculty of History, aiming to explore topics of shared interest to historians (and the historically-minded) with diverse specializations and sensibilities who work on the eighteenth century.

The Seminar meets about twice a term, on Tuesdays at 5 pm, at Emmanuel College either in the Harrods Room (on the second floor of the Queen's Building) or in the Gardner Room (on Front Court).

The History Faculty's Trevelyan Fund provides crucial and much appreciated assistance to support visits by scholars from outside Cambridge. Professor Cerutti's visit is supported by an award from the Cambridge Humanities Research Grants Scheme to encourage exchanges between the University of Cambridge and Paris Sciences et Lettres.
