

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

New Seminar: Lent Term 2018

African Economic History Seminar

Convenors: Gareth Austin and Bronwen Everill

Time: alternate Tuesdays, 5-7 pm

Venues vary: please note below.

- 30 January Morten Jerven (Edinburgh),
'The Wealth and Poverty of African States: Economic growth, living standards and taxation in Africa since the 19th Century'.
Venue: Gonville & Caius College, Old Court, Green Room.
- 13 February Tinashe Nyamunda (Free State University & CAS Cambridge),
'The Politics of Development Financing: The Kariba Dam Hydro Electric Complex in Central Africa, 1954-1976'.
Venue: King's College, Audit Room.
- 27 February Leigh Gardner (London School of Economics & Stellenbosch),
'Sovereignty in the Age of Empire: Liberia in the World Economy, 1822-1980'.
Venue: King's College, Audit Room.
- 13 March Ian Phimister (Free State University),
'Bears, Bulls and Boers: Market Making and Southern African Mining Finance, 1894-1899'.
Joint meeting with the Financial History Seminar.
Venue: Darwin College, 1 Newnham Terrace, Seminar Room.

This seminar is a new venture, which will run fortnightly during the Lent Term. We are grateful for the support of the G. M. Trevelyan Fund.

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Email: mjw205@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk