Medieval History Research Seminar

Michaelmas Term 2019

ALL SEMINARS on THURSDAYS at 4 p.m.
in the Boardroom of the History Faculty

16th January
Prof Robert Berkhofer (Western Michigan)
‘Understanding Medieval Forgeries: The Example of Saint Peter's, Ghent’

30th January
Prof Roberta Gilchrist (Reading)
‘The Materiality of Magic in Medieval Scotland: the Ritual Lives of People and Things’

13th February
Prof Laurent Feller (CNRS, Paris)
‘Growth and Peasant Labour in the 10–13th Centuries. Between Constraint, Consent and Economic Mechanisms’

27th February
Prof Naomi Standen (Birmingham)
‘Taking China out of premodern global history: bodies, threads and fabrics’

12th March
Prof Monica Green (Arizona State)
‘What Every Medievalist Should Know About Plague: Lessons from Biology and History’

Convenors:
Professor John Arnold
Dr Julie Barrau
Dr Andrew Spencer
Dr Tessa Webber