

Early Modern Economic and Social History Seminar, 2011-2012

The seminar meets in the Lloyd Room, Christ's College at 5pm on Thursdays. There are drinks and meal with speaker afterwards, to which everyone is welcome.

Michaelmas Term 2011-12

Before Christmas the seminar is incorporated into the Core Seminar in Economic and Social History, which meets weekly on Thursdays at 5.00 in the Graham Storey Room, Trinity Hall.

Lent Term 2011-12

- Thursday 19th January 2012 Adrian Green (Durham) Lloyd Room, Christ's
'How Marriage, Children and Work Reshaped the English House between the Fifteenth and Eighteenth Centuries'
- Wednesday 1st February 2012 Bernard Capp (Warwick)
'Godly Gladiators: Public Disputations in Civil War and Interregnum England'
This is jointly held with the Early Modern British and Irish Seminar and will meet in the Graham Storey Room, Trinity Hall
- Thursday 9th February 2012 David Hancock (Michigan) Lloyd Room, Christ's
'Surviving the City of London, 1660-1740'
- Thursday 16th February 2012 Karin Sennefelt (Uppsala) Lloyd Room, Christ's
'Assembling a Self: Physical and Social Worlds of Identity in Early Modern Sweden'
- Thursday 1st March 2012 Garthine Walker (Cardiff) Lloyd Room, Christ's
'Everyman or a Monster? Rape and Culpability in Early Modern England'
- Thursday 15th March 2012 David Filtness (Exeter) Lloyd Room, Christ's
'Poverty and the movement to create savings banks c. 1780-1825'