

Early Modern British and Irish History Seminar: Michaelmas 2011

The seminar meets in the Graham Storey Room, Trinity Hall, at 5.15pm (please note new starting time)

- 19 October Martin Dzelzainis (Leicester University): James Harrington's 'Pour enclouer le canon' and the republicanism of Henry Vane and John Milton
- 26 October Susan Doran (Jesus College, Oxford): Polemic, prejudice and rumour: a Scottish king for an English throne
- 2 November Richard Blakemore (Selwyn College, Cambridge): Sailing the revolutionary ocean: British seafarers in the Atlantic, 1640-1649
- 9 November Ceri Law (Robinson College, Cambridge): Edwardian Cambridge and the promotion of the Protestant nation
- 16 November Sophie Smith (Trinity College, Cambridge) John Case on empire
- 23 November David Hall (Harvard University): Understanding the Puritans: longer-term trajectories in a comparative history (England, Scotland, New England)
- 30 November Kenneth Fincham (Kent University) and Stephen Taylor (Durham University): Ordination and the restoration of the Church of England 1660-1662

Convenors:

Stephen Alford
Mark Goldie
Clare Jackson
John Morrill
Richard Serjeantson
David Smith
Alex Walsham