

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

CAMBRIDGE EARLY MODERN BRITISH & IRISH HISTORY SEMINAR 2019–20

Wednesdays at 5:15pm, Graham Storey Room, Trinity Hall

LENT TERM 2020

29 January	Eloise Davies (Peterhouse): ‘The significance of Venetian anti-papal polemic for Jacobean politics and religion’
5 February	John Morgan (Manchester): ‘Living with flooding in early modern England’
12 February	Alice O’Driscoll (Jesus): ‘Gender and siege during the Wars of the Three Kingdoms’
19 February	Derrick Mosley (Peterhouse): ‘Sir John Marsham’s Pandectae Nostri Temporis : the personal history of a family, a crisis, a war’
26 February	Thomas Pert (Oxford): ‘Divided Loyalties: The Elector Palatine, Charles I, and the English Civil War, 1642–1644’
4 March	Tara Hamling (Birmingham) and Catherine Richardson (Kent): ‘Middling Culture 1550–1640, the first year: themes, methods and practices’

EVERYBODY WELCOME

Convenors: Alexandra Walsham, Clare Jackson, David Smith, Gabriel Glickman, Kate Peters, and Paul Cavill (contact)

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Email: mjw205@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk