CAMBRIDGE INTELLIGENCE SEMINAR: MICHAELMAS TERM 2019 PROGRAMME

Welcome, or welcome back, to the Intelligence Seminar!

Convenors:

Professor Christopher Andrew (cma1001@gmail.com), Dr Dan Larsen (drl37@cam.ac.uk),
Dr Thomas Maguire (thomas.j.maguire@kcl.ac.uk), Dr John Ranelagh
(johnranelagh@yahoo.com), Sir Richard Dearlove and Professor Simon Heffer.

Simon Heffer's Staring at God: Britain in the Great War, on which he gave a Seminar presentation last term, was published on 19 September by Random House.

Except where otherwise indicated, all Cambridge meetings take place in Corpus Christi College McCrum Lecture Theatre (entry through 'The Eagle' archway, Benet Street) and commence promptly at 5.30 pm.

The Porters' Lodge at Corpus will provide further directions if required.

5-30 pm Friday 11 October 2019:

Sir Michael Fallon: 'Intelligence and Defence Policy'

From 2014 to 2017, Sir Michael Fallon MP was Secretary of State for Defence and a member of the National Security Council.

5-30 pm Friday 18 October:

Trevor Barnes and Christopher Andrew: 'KGB "illegal" operations in England: new evidence' (illustrated)

Putin now claims to have been centrally involved with the illegals during his years in KGB foreign intelligence: 'These are special people, people of special qualities, of special conviction, with a special character. To give up their life, their nearest and dearest and leave the country for many years, and to dedicate one's life to the Fatherland, not everyone is capable of doing that.'

5-30 pm Friday 25 October:

Sir Dermot Turing (nephew of Alan Turing), 'Bletchley Park Codebreakers'

A preview of his forthcoming book, which includes new insights into, among others, Cambridge and female recruits

5-30 pm Friday 1 November:

NO SEMINAR
