

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

Modern Irish History Seminar

Michaelmas term 2017

The seminars will take place in Chapel Court Room 1 in Sidney Sussex College beginning at 5pm.

11th October

Mary Daly: Reflecting on the social history of modern Ireland

8th November

Sean Enright: The talk on the 1916 trials has been well received at the Four Courts and Middle Temple. I can only promise not to be dull.

15th November

Owen McGee: Arthur Griffith: an architect of Irish independence?

29th November

Lance Pettitt: "Must I reverse the cinematograph?": Yeats, auto/biography and the medium of film

7th – 8th December

Cambridge - Edinburgh Joint Graduate Conference

The seminar is generously supported by the Trevelyan Fund of the History Faculty of the University of Cambridge, with a contribution from the Embassy of Ireland.

Convenors:

Eugenio Biagini

Sean Campbell

Simon Gallaher

Hugh Hanley

Trisha Kessler

Christopher Morash

Bronwen Walter

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Email: mjw205@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk