

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

Modern British History Research Seminar

Lent 2019

Castlereagh Room in the Fisher Building, St John's College
Thursdays at 5 pm. Drinks will be served before the discussion.

24th January –Alastair Kefford (University of Leicester)
'Planning for Affluence: Cities and the Management of Mass Consumerism in Post-war Britain'

7th February, David Cowan (University of Cambridge)
'Class, Mobility, and the Politics of the Depression Years in Affluent Britain'

21st February: Charlotte Kenealy (University of Cambridge)
tbc

7th March: Emma Griffin (University of East Anglia)
'A whole kipper for Father, the other six of the family a half apiece': sharing resources in the Victorian family.

Convenors

Lucy Delap

Niamh Gallagher

Ben Griffin (coordinator)

Sam James

Jon Parry

Helen McCarthy

Renaud Morieux

The Seminar is grateful for the generous support provided by the Trevelyan Fund

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Email: mjw205@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk