

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

World History Seminar Easter Term 2017

Thursdays 5pm

All seminars take place in Seminar Room 3, Cripps Court, Magdalene College (Chesterton Road) unless otherwise stated. A map to Cripps Court can be found here.

11 May

Professor Micah Muscolino (Oxford)

'Woodlands, warlords, and wasteful nations: Transnational networks and soil conservation in China during the 1920s'

18 May

Dr Felix Boecking (Edinburgh)

'What price socialism? Economic ideas and academic lives in the People's Republic of China during the 1950s'

25 May

Professor William Gervase Clarence-Smith (SOAS)

'Pearls & mother-of-pearl: Global marketing, production, and consumption, c. 1815-1945'

8 June

Cambridge World History Graduate Symposium

Stephanie Mawson, 'Upland resistance to colonisation in the 17th century Philippines'

James Wilson, 'Land, labour, and resistance: The Chinese in Sri Lanka and Java, 1800-16'

Michael Sugarman, 'Poverty and a new model of urban development? Reconstructing Hong Kong and Singapore, 1945-1960'

15 June

Professor Andrew Thompson (Exeter)

'Decolonisation Reframed: Unravelling the Relationships between Humanitarianism, Human Rights and the End of Empire'

Convenors: Professor Tim Harper (tnh1000) and Dr Rachel Leow (rl341)

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Email: mjw205@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk