

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

Public and Popular History Seminar

EASTER TERM 2021

Convenors: Helen McCarthy (hm234), Bernhard Fulda (bdf20) and David Reynolds (djr17)

The seminars will be held via Zoom from 5.00 – 6.30pm on the Wednesdays indicated.

Log in details will be sent to the mailing list.

To sign up to the mailing list please go to:

<https://lists.cam.ac.uk/mailman/listinfo/history-publicandpopular>

Wednesday 19th May

Unfinished Business: Feminist Public Culture

Drs Polly Russell (British Library), Lucy Delap (Cambridge) and Professor Margaretta Jolly (Sussex) discuss the British Library's landmark exhibition, Unfinished Business: the Fight for Women's Rights, and reflect on how academic research can inform and shape the public history of feminisms across the heritage sector and popular publishing.

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Email: mjw205@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk