The Eighteenth-Century Seminar is a post-graduate seminar, sponsored by the Faculty of History, aiming to explore topics of shared interest to historians (and the historically-minded) with diverse specializations and sensibilities who work on the eighteenth century. The History Faculty's Trevelyan Fund normally provides crucial and much appreciated assistance to support visits by scholars from outside Cambridge.

The first Seminar of the term will be held on Zoom after which the other two Seminars will be held in the Senior Parlour, Gonville and Caius College. This year's Seminar will meet on Tuesdays at 4 p.m. Details of meetings will be circulated via the Faculty mailing lists and website.
