

Seminar in Early Modern Economic and Social History Faculty of History, University of Cambridge, Lent 2022

The seminar meets Thursdays at 5 pm in Room 5 of the History Faculty.

We normally have dinner with the speaker afterwards, to which all are welcome.

Convenors: Martin Andersson, Jonah Miller, Craig Muldrew, Elly Robson, Joris van den Tol

28th April

Misha Ewen (Historic Royal Palaces),

Barbary Newton: An Absentee Slave-Owner in Late Seventeenth-Century England

5th May

Jonas Lindstrom (Uppsala University),

Real wages and wages in reality: Lessons from a Swedish royal stud farm

12th May

Rebecca Mason (Glasgow University),

Family conflict, legal strategies, and women's litigation in early modern Scotland

19th May

Maïka de Keyzer (KU Leuven),

The paradox of being poor, yet well fed and warm: Material welfare levels in the 17th and 18th century Southern Low Countries

26th May

Marie Yasunaga & Danielle van de Heuvel (University of Amsterdam),

Illuminating Gender in the Early Modern Urban Space of Edo: A study on Edo Meisho Zue

2nd June

Brodie Waddell (Birkbeck),

The People, the State, and the Power of Local Petitioning in Early Modern England

The support of the Trevelyan Fund (Faculty of History) is gratefully acknowledged.