

Early Modern World History Workshop

Lent Term 2024

Thursdays, 3-4:30pm

St Catharine's College (check room for individual events)

- 1 February Lavinia Gambini, Eastern Mediterranean Vernacular Practitioners in Early Modern Italy
&
Yi Wang, Co-translating Christian Hagiographies in the Ming-Qing period
[Sidney Smith room, St Catharine's College]
- 15 February Cecilia Tarruell
Gendered histories of mobility and resistance across the early modern Mediterranean
[Ramsden Room, St Catharine's College]
- 29 February Kaja Cook
Mobility, Memory, and History in the Mayorazgo Litigation of the Indigenous and Morisco Nobility
[Ramsden Room, St Catharine's College]
- 14 March Anna Knutsson
Rum, light, and unicorns: the effect of illegal trade in the high north on British consumer habits, 1770-1800
[Ramsden Room, St Catharine's College]

Convenors

Valentina Caldari, Marina Ini, Mary Laven, Helen Pfeifer, Gabriela Ramos, Ulinka Rublack